COMMISSIONER'S ORDER NO. 07 /2009.

Consequent upon the announcement of the schedule for holding the General Election, 2009 by the Election Commission of India vide their letter No. VF(A)-28/2009/2212/Elect dt 03.03.09, reports and intelligence collected so far reveal that there is a possibility of misuse of licensed weapons in various illegal activities including threatening and intimidation during the period of election. Information received from Deputy Commissioners of Police, Cuttack & Bhubaneswar and others reveal that many licensed holders of weapons may take active part in the process of election and may create disturbance of peace and public tranquillity, which may lead to disruption of free and fair general election.

And whereas in order to maintain law & order for smooth and peaceful conduct of free and fair election, it has become imperative to order deposit of all licenced weapons at the respective PSs or at District Armoury.

Keeping in view the above, it is hereby ordered that all licensees with weapons/arms within the area of the Police Commissionerate of Bhubaneswar-Cuttack are required to deposit their weapons at the Police Stations in whose jurisdiction they reside or at the District Armoury, located at Cuttack and Bhubaneswar by 26.03.09 positively. The weapons shall be retained till the results of the elections are declared.

By Order

(B.K.Sharma)
Commissioner of Police,
Bhubaneswar-Cuttack.
